• Reception will forward the ‘Withdrawal of Course’ form to Director of International Business, who will advise the student in writing within 5 working days of calculation due to student.
• The refund to the student will be made within 14 days of student completing the ‘Withdrawal of Course’ form and handing to Reception. Refunds will only be made payable to the person who paid the fees in the first instance
• In the event a student is unsatisfied with decision, and wishes to appeal the decision, the student can access the school’s complaints and appeals policy, outlined below.

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS
AHTS advises you that as a participant involved in a training activity provided by this organisation you have rights regarding the treatment you receive whilst undertaking the activity.
If you feel you have been adversely affected by unsatisfactory training, poor supervision, unfair treatment in training and assessment outcomes, any form of harassment or victimisation or other matters of concern, please refer to the procedures outlined below.

Initially, discuss your concerns informally with the staff member or those who have direct responsibility, such as the Education Manager.

If grievance of any nature cannot be resolved informally the School adopts the following complaints procedure:

Recording and documenting process - At each stage of any complaints, appeals and grievance process all details will be recorded in writing. A copy will be placed in student and/or staff file and in the Complaints, Appeals and Grievances Register.

1. Any complaint or appeal relating to a complaint, made by a student or staff member which cannot be resolved internally will be recorded in writing from the first notification. All students and staff who wish to lodge a complaint, grievance or appeal, will be able to present their case fully, verbally and in writing to either the Chief Executive Officer or an independent Executive Officer of the organization.

2. If the complaint or appeal relates to a facilitator teaching a unit of competency, the matter should be addressed to the Chief Executive Officer, who will table the matter at the next monthly QAG meeting, and any minutes discussing or deciding on the matter will be made available to the staff member or student. The Chief Executive Officer will write to the student within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint, outlining his/her proposed solution.

3. If the complaint or appeal relates to a member of staff, the student should approach the Chief Executive Officer. A confidential, minuted meeting with the member of staff concerned, the student and the Chief Executive Officer would be made to aid further discussion.
   a) each complainant or appellant has an opportunity to formally present his or her case at minimal or no cost to him or herself,
   b) each party may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings
   c) the complainant or appellant is given a written statement of the outcome, including details of the reasons for the outcome, and;
   d) the process commences within 10 working days of the formal lodgment of the complaint or appeal and supporting information and all reasonable measures are taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.

4. Any student who feels that she/he is not able to achieve an adequate outcome from these steps may refer the matter externally. The organisation directly related to the school as a registered training organisation is:
   *Training Advocate: Ground floor 55 Currie Street, Adelaide 5000 Phone 1800 006 488

5. The School will investigate if any corrective action is required to improve the main issues raised as a result of the complaint or appeal by the client or staff member.
The School will instigate corrective action for any processing or system errors that may have occurred as a result of the complaint or appeal. Monitor and improve progressively any situations that may be necessary due to the complaint or appeal.
